The New York Daily News, issue of 5/14/70, contains an article which states that the subject, a representative of the underground press, smashed a pie into the face of a member of the U.S. Commission on Obscenity and Pornography to express his opposition to this "unconstitutional, illegitimate, unlawful, prehistoric, obscene, absurd key-stone committee."

On 11/22/70, Lt. [ ] Fallsburg, NY PD, advised the subject was arrested by his department for a traffic violation and had in his possession a membership card for the Students for a Democratic Society.

b6
b7C
b7D

On 1/9/72, [ ] advised the subject was the only one of the attendees at a "pre-conference" Yippie meeting held in Madison, Wisconsin, who was not in agreement that there should be no violence in Miami for the Democratic National Convention.

On 1/20/72, [ ] advised the subject stated he was trying to obtain a White House press pass and, if successful, he will conceal a gun in his camera and shoot the President.

Recommendation:

In view of the above facts, subject is being recommended for Priority I of the ADEX of the New York Office.

THOMAS K. FORCADE was listed as one of the incorporators.

The purposes of this Underground Press Syndicate (UPS) were as follows:

To increase the awareness of the underground press to the general public and to its affiliates.

To serve as a clearinghouse for those inquiring information about the underground press.

To prepare and print pamphlets regarding the printing, mailing distribution, et cetera of a newspaper.

Publish directories, microfilm newspapers and print a newsletter to be distributed without charge.

On October 26, 1970, NY T-3 advised that the address of the subject at 11 East 17th Street, New York City (NYC), is the office of the Underground Press Syndicate in NYC.

On October 26, 1970, NY T-3 advised that the subject was the head of the UPS in NYC, and the purpose of the UPS is to aid in the starting and operating of underground newspapers.

On November 24, 1970, NY T-4 advised that a list provided at the Southern Regional Conference of Underground Newspapers, held October 24-25, 1970, at Mount Beulah, Edwards, Mississippi, under the heading Other Representation From:, was TOM FORCADE, U.P.S., Box 26, Village Station, New York (NY), NY.

In May, 1971, NY T-5 advised that the subject attended the National Underground Press Conference, Austin, Texas.

The August 25, 1971 issue of "The East Village Other," a NYC bi-weekly, states that, "TOM FORCADE, of the Underground Press Syndicate, has been admitted to the Press Corps of the House of Representatives and the Senate as the representative of the underground press - he eventually hopes to get into the White House Press Corps so he can ask the President questions like 'How does it feel to be a mass murderer?'"

NY 100-169079

This article also says the subject left NY U.P.S. office six months ago for Washington, DC.

On August 31, 1971, NY T-2 advised that the subject was "thrown out" of the UPS in NYC and was attempting to start another such service in the Washington, DC area.

An article in "The Evening Star," a Washington, DC local daily newspaper, dated September 8, 1971, page A-7, disclosed that THOMAS KING FORCADE, "a revolutionary" who once threw a pie in the face of a member of the US Commission on Obscenity and Pornography, has been admitted to the House and Senate Press Galleries as Washington correspondent of the Underground Press Service.

The November 14, 1971 issue of "The New York Times," page 75, contains an article entitled "White House Bars a Radical Reporter."

The article states the Secret Service had barred the subject for security reasons.

The article also states as follows: "Today he insisted that he was a 'nonviolent person' with nothing in his background that could imply that he would be a threat to the President."

The December 22, 1971 issue of "The New York Ace," a bi-weekly newspaper published in NYC, lists the subject as its Washington Reporter in its masthead.

This issue on page 6 also contains an article by the subject entitled, "Inside D.C.," in which he states that he was recently admitted to the Senate and House Press Gallery and that as a member of this Gallery he is entitled to a floor pass to both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

NY 100-169079

C. Affiliation With the Youth International Party (YIP)

On July 16, 1970, NY T-3 advised that on July 15, 1970, at a meeting of the Youth International Party (YIP) held at 5 West 21st Street, NYC, the subject's name was mentioned as head of the Underground Press Syndicate, and as a coordinator of a soon to be held affair for radical groups to be held in NYC.

On October 8, 1971, NY T-6 advised that the subject had come to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in September of 1971 to meet the YIP people in order to raise money to release a member of the Yippies who is in jail for illegal sale and possession of narcotics.

On January 3, 1972, NY T-6 advised that the subject will attend the Youth International Party "Pre Conference," held January 7-9, 1972, at Madison, Wisconsin.

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in NYC in January, 1968.

On January 3, 1972, NY T-6 advised that no agenda will be planned for the YIP conference concerning demonstrations to be held during the forthcoming political campaign until TOM FORCADE arrives in Madison, Wisconsin, to attend the conference.

On January 9, 1972, NY T-6 advised that at the above mentioned conference the subject stated he would try and raise money for the demonstrations to be held in Miami by organizing benefits with rock musical groups. The subject will also draft a press release to be given to the Madison, Wisconsin press at which the "Yippie" events to be held in Miami at the Democratic National Convention will be outlined. NY T-7 advised that the subject was the only one of the conference attendees who was not in agreement that there should be no violence in Miami.

NY 100-169079

D. Affiliation With the Students for a Democratic Society

On November 22, 1970, [REDACTED] Fallsburg, NY PD advised THOMAS KING FORCADE was arrested by his department on a motor vehicle violation. The basic charge was that there was an improperly registered motor vehicle. At the time the car bearing NY registration 1413QJ for which no registered owner could be located. The subject claimed that the bus belonged to North Beach Productions of San Francisco, California. The subject claimed that he was a representative of the Wendre Publishing House, Incorporated, 11 East 17th Street, NYC.

b6
b7C

He furnished his permanent home address as the Albert Hotel, 9 South 13th Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona. FORCADE had in his possession a valid Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) membership card.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

A review of the records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, New York City, reveal that New York license 1413QJ was registered for use on a 1961 Pontiac sedan, and that as of September 1, 1970, these plates had been voluntarily surrendered to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

NY 100-169079

E. Affiliation With the May Day Committee

On June 16, 1971, NY T-8 furnished information regarding a list of participants at the May Day Collective Conference held at Needmore, Indiana, on May 21-23, 1971. The name of TOM FORCADE, Box 26, Village Station, NYC, Underground Press Syndicate, Washington, DC, appeared on this list.

The current purpose of May Day is to organize and participate in non-violent civil disobedience type demonstrations against the war in Indochina, racism and repression.

F. Miscellaneous

The November 19, 1969 issue of the "San Diego Union," Section B, contains an article that the subject has forfeited $315.00 bail by failing to appear in Municipal Court to answer charges of desecrating the flag.

The March 10, 1970 issue of the "San Diego Evening Tribune," page B-9, contains an article concerning THOMAS KING FORCADE. FORCADE was arrested on November 13, 1970. The subject was charged with desecration of the flag, however, a Municipal Court judge ruled that the hat worn by the subject with the flag on it may be suppressed as evidence as the police had not seen the flag when they arrested the subject. FORCADE was identified as the editor of the Underground Press Syndicate in NYC.

The November 14, 1969 issue of the "San Diego Union," pages B-1, B-5, contain an article regarding the subject's late appearance at a panel discussion at the El Cortez Hotel sponsored by the Sigma Delta Chi Journalism Fraternity. The article stated that FORCADE threw a glass at someone while at the meeting and stated, "I just got out of jail after I was arrested on every charge they could trump up..." It's common all over the United States. They wanted to keep me in jail three days. FORCADE then entered a discussion with [redacted] United Press International reporter, regarding the Vietnam War and the actions of correspondents in the war zone.

The New York "Daily News," issue of May 14, 1970, in the news story entitled, "A Pie Smears Smut Probe," states as follows:

"A young representative of the underground press smashed a pie into the face of a member of the United States Commission on Obscenity and Pornography today to express his opposition to this unconstitutional, illegitimate, unlawful, prehistoric, obscene, absurd keystone committee."

"Commissioner ~~OTTO N. LARSEN~~, cream pie sliding down his face and onto his shirt, didn't raise his hand or voice in protest."

"The pie was thrown at him from about a foot away, by THOMAS FORCADE, projects coordinator for the Underground Press Syndicate, an organization of street-peddled newspapers which have sprung up in almost every major city in the country.

"Accompanied by about six cops he was permitted to leave with his entourage of young people after FORCADE had finished his presentation."

"It consisted of reading a 1,000-word statement which was dotted with four-letter words. The statement protested the commission's existence and 'political repression in the thin but transparent guise of obscenity.'

"After reading it, FORCADE, who was dressed in black clerical garb, read the names of 51 underground newspapers which he said had been 'victims of censorship in the last three years.'

The "Phoenix Gazette," issue of June 21, 1969, page 2, reports that the subject surrendered to the police on a charge of illegal possession of LSD after the police had raided the National Headquarters of the UPS at 9 South 13th Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona.

On October 15, 1971, NY T-2 advised that the subject had returned to NYC for several weeks to talk with ABBIE HOFFMAN concerning $8,000.00 in royalties owed the subject for information used by HOFFMAN in his book.

ABBIE HOFFMAN is a spokesman for the "New Left" who has written several books and who was convicted in Chicago along with others for violation of Federal Anti-Riot Laws.

On October 20, 1971, NY T-2 advised HOFFMAN has lost the dispute and was ordered to pay the subject $8,000.00.

INSIDE D.C.

by Thomas King Forcade

I have been hearing a lot of talk here in Washington about a madman who calls himself "president" of the U.S.A.

Now, of course, the nuthouses are filled with people who think they are the President, or Napoleon, or Jesus Christ, but this case is different. Most nuts, if they're persistent, can perhaps convince one or two other people that they're the President or Napoleon.

But this fool, who calls himself Richard M. Nixon, has managed to convince nearly all of the 200,000,000 people in the country that he is the President.

"I am the President" he intones, and the world believes it. And why not? Over three million soldiers in the armed forces stand ready to kick the ass of anybody who disagrees. Nixon has billions of megadeaths to rain down on anybody who questions his authority. The Vietnamese questioned his authority in their country, and over 540,000 have died. The Cambodians questioned and were invaded. The Laotians questioned and were invaded. Fred Hampton questioned and was invaded. With bullets.

Indeed, Nixon is the number one murderer in the world. Nixon murders more people every minute than Manson (whom Nixon, the incompetent lawyer, called "galtty") ever dreamed of. Nixon presides over Arlington National Cemetery where there are more acres of graves than all the citrus groves in 50 miles of Yuba City.

I have come to Washington to report on Nixon and the rest of this illegitimate government. I will be writing a regular series of columns, as well as special stories. I was accepted, after a six month fight, to the Senate and House Press Corps. But I have been turned down for White House Press corps credentials. I am suing President Nixon and the United States government for abridging my rights under the First Amendment (freedom of the press, equal access to news). The national office of the American Civil Liberties Union is taking my case and William Kunstler will be one of my lawyers. When I am finally admitted, I will be the first radical, the first representative from the underground press, and the first long-hair to gain access to the inner circle.

Yes, I will demand an office in the basement of the White House, just like those whores from the straight press have. And I will demand to travel on the Presidential plane and demand the same accommodations, privileges and rights as any other reporter.

After all, the New York Times has a circulation of a paltry million. The underground press has a circulation of over twenty million. We demand equal rights.

The Emperor of Babylon is always going parading in his new clothes. I have to say that the Emperor has no clothes. No one ever says that. Did you see Nixon's last press conference? The questions are always deferential, carefully couched in inoffensive language, brilliantly worded to give Nixon an out. It is considered gauche to pin this murdering fascist down. That would be "unobjective" of the straight press. I have come to be gauche.

The press conferences, of course, are completely rigged. Canned questions are asked and canned replies are given. It's a bad soap opera, with death as the commercial. A reporter told me how one time he remained standing a moment too long and was firmly planted in his seat by Secret Service goons. Nixon is an utter phoney and so are his so-called press conferences.

Fascism is taken for granted among the Washington press corps. They have been living at the center of it for so long that it's not even news anymore, to them. Their editors have cut out such things so many times that they don't even bother any more.

I had lunch with some older reporters from the New York Times. Not kids, and not radicals, but straight reporters. A secretary was there as well. They are all convinced that their office phones are tapped. There is no rancor or surprise, just acceptance in their voices. The secretary is convinced that her home phone is tapped also, and nobody is willing to disagree with her. She's probably right.

They talk casually of how Bobby Kennedy found out that Hoover was reading his mail before it got to Bobby's desk. They talk openly about the fact that they have to conduct certain reporting in utter secret until the story breaks, or else. A lot of reporters have gotten midnight visits from the FBI or the Secret Service while they were working on a story, and have seen their story "cancelled" before it could see print.

1984 is here now, it's such common knowledge in Washington that it's passe. But it's still new to me, and I'll be writing about it until the bitter end. Not of me. Of them.

I spent one Friday at the Capitol Building, familiarizing myself with the layout. I walked up and down the corridors, my hair down to my shoulders, with a large "Free Leslie Bacon" button on my chest. Lerlie Bacon started her movement career at the Underground Press Syndicate.

Every time I encountered a guard at the Capitol, I would ask him where the private restrooms were. In every case, the guard would helpfully point the way. Despite the Capitol restroom bombing, there is no paranoia.

The Capitol building is wide open for another bombing.

DETAILS:

I. BACKGROUND

A. Residence and Employment

On 2/4/72, NY T-1 advised that THOMAS KING FORCADE resides in New York City where he is associated with the Underground Press Service and is working out of the address of 204 West 10th Street, New York City.

On 2/8/72, the address of 204 West 10th Street, NYC was physically observed by a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It was determined that this address is a store which is an underground newspaper outlet named, "Other Scenes", and which NY T-1 has advised is the headquarters of the Underground Press Service.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The superintendent of the residence section of 204 West 10th Street advised that the store which is one door east of his building is rarely opened during the day. He also observed a photo of the subject and advised that this person does not reside as a tenant of 204 West 10th Street.

On 3/9/72, the subject was physically observed by an SA of the FBI while sitting at a desk and talking to other persons at the "Other Scenes", located at 204 West 10th Street New York City.

II. ACTIVITY ASSOCIATED WITH THE NEW LEFT

The January 1-31, 1972, issue of "Sweet Fire", published in Albany, New York, contains an article on page four by THOMAS KING FORCADE and entitled, "Inside D. C.".

This article is extremely critical of the manner in which President NIXON's activities are reported in the news media.

The subject states, "NIXON is the number one murderer in the world. NIXON murders more people every minute than MAN-SON (whom NIXON, the incompetent lawyer, called guilty), ever dreamed of".

The subject says in his article that he has been turned down for White House Press Corps credentials and that he is suing the President of the United States, and the United States Government. FORCADE feels that press conferences with the President are "completely rigged".

FORCADE states he went to the US Capitol while in Washington, D. C.. "Everytime I encountered a guard at the Capitol, I would ask him where the private rest rooms were. In every case the guard would helpfully point the way. Despite the capitol rest room bombing, there is no paranoia. The Capitol building is wide open for another bomb".

NY 100-169079

The February 15, 1972 issue of "WIN", the semi-monthly magazine of the War Resisters League contains an article signed by "Reverend THOMAS KING FORCADE". The article tells of the writer's lawsuit against ABBIE HOFFMAN regarding royalties on, "Steal This Book", which the subject claims he published in partnership with HOFFMAN

The War Resisters League, 339 Lafayette Street, New York, New York, is a branch of the War Resisters International, a pacifist organization with affiliates in 20 countries.

III. MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITY

On 2/9/72, NY T-2 advised that the subject is driving a black four-door Cadillac Fleetwood, Wisconsin License 8D8414.

A review of the records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department (NYCPD), on 2/16/72, reflects that on 1/23/72, THOMAS FORCADE, 327 South 17th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was arrested by the NYCPD for PL 170.70, driving a car with an altered VIN number. The record reflects that the charges were dismissed on 1/31/72.

During February and March of 1972, various confidential sources who are familiar with New Left activity in the NYC area were contacted regarding the subject and they advised that they were not familiar with the subject or his activities.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS. ALL INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN NEW LEFT EXTREMIST ACTIVITY SHOULD BE CONSIDERED DANGEROUS BECAUSE OF THEIR KNOWN ADVOCACY AND USE OF EXPLOSIVES, REPORTED ACQUISITION OF FIREARMS AND INCENDIARY DEVICES AND KNOWN PROPENSITY FOR VIOLENCE.

[redacted] Island, Florida, a firm specializing in art work for advertising agencies. According to [redacted] was overheard to say that TOM FORCADE (ph) from New York City visited St. Petersburg for two days during the week of 2/11-12/72. [redacted] described FORCADE as a representative of YIPPIE and remarked that he understood that YIPPIE had recently changed its name at a conference to ZIPPIE. FORCADE remained at the Edgewater Beach Motel in St. Petersburg. The purpose of his visit to St. Petersburg was to observe a youth registration rally in St. Petersburg on 2/11/72. It was at this rally that [redacted] met FORCADE.

FORCADE learned from [redacted] that the latter did art work, and this perpetrated a prolonged conversation between [redacted] and FORCADE about the possibility of [redacted] doing some artwork for the ZIPPIES in connection with their participation in the forthcoming Democratic National Convention in Miami, Florida.

The real purpose of FORCADE's visit to St. Petersburg, according to [redacted] who did not meet FORCADE, was to evaluate the drive and enthusiasm of Florida youth politically, and to assess how much ZIPPIE can count on them in their Miami plans. While in St. Petersburg, Florida, FORCADE met with [redacted] a Priority I ADEX subject of the Tampa Division.

FORCADE indicated to [redacted] that he, FORCADE, intended to leave St. Petersburg for a visit with Miami in order to make arrangements and for some appearances of JERRY RUBIN.

Re New York letter to the Director 4/18/72.

On 4/24/72, [redacted] Edgewater, Beach Motel, 631 Northshore Drive, St. Petersburg, Florida, advised that his records revealed that THOMAS FORCADE of 204 W. 10th Street, New York, New York, arrived at the Edgewater Beach on 2/12/72, and departed on 2/13/72. FORCADE was accompanied by another individual whose identity is unknown to [redacted]. He arrived at this conclusion as his records indicated that there were two individuals in FORCADE's party. FORCADE executed a guest register and under a category entitled firm name, he placed "Zippies." He indicated in the space provided for a description of his vehicle, he was driving a Rolls Royce, Silver Cloud, with license # 5. He indicated that the state in which it was registered was Wales. [redacted] advised that there was no record of any telephone calls made by FORCADE while he was at the Edgewater Beach.

[redacted] Edgewater Beach Motel. said that the individual who registered FORCADE, [redacted] no longer worked for the Edgewater Beach but is [redacted] for the Hilton Hotel, in St. Petersburg. She said he may recall having registered FORCADE and perhaps be able to describe his companion.

[redacted] informed that she is of the opinion that perhaps FORCADE would have had to have been recommended to the Edgewater Beach, as this hotel is not one of the main tourist hotels in the area, and the great majority of people who stay at the Edgewater Beach have made reservations in advance. She pointed out the improbability that an individual would "walk in" to the Edgewater Beach, if he did not know about it in advance. At this time, she said she suspected [redacted] of having recommended the Edgewater Beach to FORCADE. She pointed out that [redacted] had previously been a resident at Edgewater Beach, until he accumulated

Thomas King Forcade

On February 25, 1972, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the subject, from New York City, had recently visited St. Petersburg, Florida, for two days as a representative of the Youth International Party known as YIPPIES.

The source advised that the YIPPIES had recently changed their name to ZIPPIES. The subject also visited Miami to evaluate the drive and enthusiasm of Florida youth politically and how much they can be counted on at the Convention.

The subject felt that ZIPPIE had little organizational structure in Florida, and it was going to be necessary for them to utilize most of the other New Left groups in the State in connection with the Democratic National Convention ZIPPIE activities.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City, in January, 1968.

On January 10, 1972, a second reliable source advised that the subject, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate, had helped to organize a YIPPIE conference in Madison, Wisconsin, January 7 - 9, 1972.

The second source also advised that the subject was the only one of the conference attendees who was not in agreement that there should be no violence at the Miami Convention.

On November 22, 1970, [REDACTED] Fallsburg, New York, Police Department, advised that subject was arrested by his department on a motor vehicle violation, and at the time of this arrest Forcade had a valid Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) membership in his possession.

b7C

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

On January 20, 1972, a third reliable source advised that the subject, a member of the United States (US) House and Senate Corps of Reporters, was trying to obtain White House Press Credentials and had said if he was able to enter the White House, would conceal a gun in his camera and shoot the President.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Thomas King Forcade

The third source also added the subject has been dealing in the sale of marijuana and is an extremely unstable person.

An article in "The Evening Star"; a Washington, DC local daily newspaper, dated September 8, 1971, page A-7, identified the subject as "a revolutionary" who once threw a pie in the face of a member of the United States Commission on Obscenity and Pornography.

The "Phoenix Gazette", issue of June 21, 1969, page two, reported the subject surrendered to the police on a charge of illegal possession of LSD after the police had raided the national headquarters of the Underground Press Syndicate.

The March 10, 1970 issue of the "San Diego Evening Tribune", page B-9, contains an article which states that the subject was arrested on March 13, 1970, and charged with desecration of the flag, however, a municipal court judge ruled that the hat worn by the subject with the flag on it could be suppressed as evidence as the police had not seen the flag when they arrested the subject.

A review of the records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department (NYCPD), on February 16, 1972, reflects that on January 23, 1972 Thomas Forcade, 327 South 17th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was arrested by the NYCPD for PL 170.70, driving a car with an altered Vehicle Identification Number. The record reflects that the charges were dismissed on January 31, 1972.

DATE: 6/23/72

FROM : SAC, TAMPA (100-2958) (P)

SUBJECT: THOMAS KING FORCADE
SM - RA (EXTREMIST)
(OO:NY)

ReTPlet to BU 5/1/72.

On 6/22/72, [redacted] Hilton Hotel, St. Petersburg, Fla. and [redacted] at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in St. Petersburg, Fla. informed that he recalled FORCADE having registered at the Edgewater Beach in February 1972. His memory was refreshed by display of photograph of FORCADE. He was shown the guest registration card which he, [redacted] had signed. He said that he was unable to recall any specific information about FORCADE's registration and visit at the Edgewater Beach, with the exception that he did recall that FORCADE was alone when he entered the Edgewater Beach early in the morning. He noticed that on the guest registration it was indicated that two persons were in FORCADE's party. He said that if FORCADE was accompanied by anyone, his companion remained in the car. He noted that FORCADE indicated he arrived at the Edgewater Beach in a Rolls Royce silver car. He said that no one at the Edgewater Beach would have actually confirmed the fact that he did arrive in this vehicle, and that the information was supplied by FORCADE.

EX-116 REC-15 100-469538-20
[redacted] remarked that [redacted] would probably have been the individual instrumental in bringing FORCADE to the Edgewater Beach. He recalled that [redacted] associated with individuals of this type, and that he had left the Edgewater Beach owing that establishment a considerable amount of money.

20 JUN 28 1972
[redacted] had been frequently contacted since the submission of relet concerning any additional information he may have developed concerning FORCADE. On 6/22/72, [redacted] related that since the last information he furnished regarding FORCADE, he has developed no additional information. He will remain alert to the possibility that FORCADE may return to St. Petersburg, or communicate with people known to [redacted] St. Petersburg.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THOMAS KING FORCADE

On February 25, 1972, it was determined that one [redacted]

Treasure Island, Florida, [redacted]

[redacted] was overheard to say that TOM FORCADE from New York City had visited St. Petersburg, Florida, for two days on February 11-12, 1972. [redacted] at the time described FORCADE as a representative of the Youth International Party (YIP) or "YIPPIE" and also remarked that he understood "YIPPIE" had recently changed its name to "ZIPPIE". FORCADE remained at the Edgewater Beach Motel in St. Petersburg. The purpose of his visit to St. Petersburg was to observe a youth registration rally in St. Petersburg on February 11, 1972. It was at this rally that [redacted] met FORCADE.

b7C

FORCADE learned from [redacted] that the latter did art work, and this perpetrated a prolonged conversation between [redacted] and FORCADE about the possibility of Mediagraphics doing some artwork for the ZIPPIES in connection with their participation in the forthcoming Democratic National Convention in Miami, Florida.

The real purpose of FORCADE's visit to St. Petersburg was to evaluate the drive and enthusiasm of Florida youth politically and to assess how much the ZIPPIES can count on them in their Miami plans. FORCADE indicated that [redacted] that he, FORCADE, intended to leave St. Petersburg for a visit in Miami in order to make arrangements in connection with JERRY RUBIN. ILL 1-1

RE: THOMAS KING FORCADE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

FORCADE told [ ] that ZIPPIE had little organizational structure in Florida and that it was going to be necessary for them to utilize most of the other New Left groups in the State in connection with the Democratic National Convention ZIPPIE activities.

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as "Yippies", is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

~~ABBE~~ HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Antiriot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. Pending an appeal they were released on bond by the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois. Fl. 1 11.7

The YIP National Congress, scheduled for May 26-28, 1972, at Miami, Florida, was canceled. TOM FORCADE (YIP factional leader) in its place scheduled a three-day conclave at his residence, 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. The conclave was to begin with a "banquet" at that address. A planning and strategy session would be held the following day.

5/26/72

The YIP conclave commenced on the evening of May 26, 1972, at the residence of TOM FORCADE, 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Florida. Approximately 25, the majority from Madison, Wisconsin, were in attendance. Admission was restricted to individuals known to FORCADE. The conclave was totally disorganized. Nothing was accomplished. Discussions centered around previous YIP activities and previous arrests of those present. A number present indicated a displeasure at the cancellation of the YIP-NC. They stated they may leave Florida the following day.

RE: THOMAS KING FORCADE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The planning and strategy session of the YIP conclave was held at the home of TOM FORCADE in Coconut Grove, Florida. It commenced at 2:00 P.M. with approximately 40 in attendance. RUBIN and HOFFMAN were expected to attend. Attempts were to be made to work out the differences between these two factions. HOFFMAN and his supporters arrived at the meeting and commenced to stage an obvious, well-planned attack against FORCADE. They blamed him for all the difficulties and factional divisions within the YIP. Considerable time was devoted to a discussion of FORCADE's public claim that he was not paid sufficiently for corroborating with HOFFMAN on the book entitled "Steal This Book". A decision was made to submit this controversy to a panel of "Movement" people rather than to a court of law. Virtually the entire meeting was devoted to the vicious attack on FORCADE. The arguments against him were well timed and effective. A motion was passed censuring FORCADE for not privately resolving the issue concerning the book. He was expelled from the YIP and was specifically named a "police provocateur and/or a maniac". This motion passed by a vote of 32 to 3 with four abstentions.

The "people's court" ruled against FORCADE but told HOFFMAN to pay him $1,500.00. HOFFMAN did but marked the check "paid in full". FORCADE, believing he would not have a claim any more against HOFFMAN under New York law if he accepted the check, turned it back to HOFFMAN's lawyer. Reportedly he is now suing HOFFMAN for $30,000.00 in a court of law.

FORCADE at times acted like a "wild man". At one point he picked up a pair of scissors and severely carved up the paneling of a wall in the house where the conclave was being held.

TOM FORCADE, following his expulsion from the YIP, departed for Gainesville, Florida, to attend a meeting of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War in that city.

5/28/72

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

The YIP collective, on the evening of May 28, 1972, met with YIP followers of FORCADE at YIP headquarters, Miami Beach, Florida. Approximately 35 were in attendance. A decision concerning the establishment of a printing collective took place.

5/29/72

A fight occurred at the YIP headquarters, Miami Beach, on May 30, 1972. TOM FORCADE (YIP factional leader) and his people attempted to crash the office. Yippie rebel calls were sounded and those present, including ABBE HOFFMAN, formed a barricade and a fighting wedge and ejected FORCADE and his followers from the office. FORCADE was screaming and called for HOFFMAN to come out and fight. FORCADE's followers pulled him into the elevator but before the door had closed HOFFMAN spit in his face. Later the area was scouted by YIP members and it was reported FORCADE was walking around the building with a gasoline can.

TOM FORCADE continues to be involved in publishing the "Beach Blanket News". One copy of this paper contained an article captioned "Gay Power" and another article "On To Miami". The "On To Miami" article was as follows:

"As summertime approaches, various radical groups are looking forward to enjoying surf, sand and sun in a 1972 political vacation in Miami Beach. We'll all be enjoying the warm tropical climate while trying to change the political climate.

"Y.I.P. is going to be trying to bring thousands of people down to Miami for the conventions. We're also going to be working to integrate these people into the spirit and mood of the local community, and needs...

"Y.I.P. and everyone wants a non-violent summer. The public is tired of violence. Chicago proved the government can be fascist. In Miami we want to show how we're different. We all want an immediate end to the war and much more!

"But already the government appears to be trying to use the convention demonstrations to project an image of 'law 'n order'.

"Some of our key people have been jailed, other have been hit with bogus charges and are on the lam. Hassles of freeks have begun locally.

"Further, we have made it clear to the Miami Beach police that to prevent trouble during the conventions we would have to have Bayshore Golf Course as an assembly and accomodation area for the huge numbers of people coming down. Chief Pomerance and other officials expressed their desire to fully cooperate, and the future will tell how sincere they are. We know the people will not allow unnecessary stalling like Chicago did, in '68.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
Tampa, Florida
August 15, 1972

RE: ZIPPIE ACTIVITIES AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION,
AUGUST, 1972

The Zippies is an off-shoot of the Youth International Party (YIP).

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.
Following a factional dispute in May,
1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP Collective,
and the Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING
FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

The Republican National Convention (RNC) is scheduled to be held at Miami Beach, Florida, August 21 - 24, 1972.

On August 2, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] was in the Orlando, Florida area on August 1, 1972, staying at [redacted] Winter Park, Florida. He arrived from Miami in a van to organize a caravan from Orlando, Gainesville, Daytona Beach, and Cocoa, Florida, or try for separate caravans from these areas, to Miami for the RNC. He expected to be in the Orlando area about one week.

Tom Forcade, Zippie leader, was in the Underground Press Syndicate Office in New York City, New York, on Tuesday, August 1, 1972, and was upset over [redacted] allegedly changing programs while Forcade was away. Forcade wants [redacted] former Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) member from Orlando, Florida, to handle the public relations assignments for the convention and to handle press relations instead of [redacted] Zippie leader, or [redacted] both of whom he dislikes.

RE: ZIPPIE ACTIVITIES AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION,

---

Forcade sent [ ] and [ ] out on the road during the present time to get rid of them and left [ ] in charge of the Zippie House in Miami, Florida. They now have a new headquarters in Coconut Grove, Miami, on Mary Street, which was formerly the Krishna House and only about a half block from the previous Zippie Headquarters.

b6
b7C

As the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer," as "A multinational revolutionary socialist youth organization."

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Forcade is threatening to stay in New York and not return to Miami for the RNC and withdraw all his financial support if [ ] does not personally apologize to him for changing plans for activities during the coming convention while he was away. [ ] denied making any such changes and does not plan to apologize. Forcade will probably return whether [ ] apologizes or not. Forcade is interested in organizing the Zippies and is planning all their convention activities and is financing the movement in order to write a book which he hopes to sell for $70,000. He apparently has backers, but they are unknown except that an individual named [ ] in New York City, has been the principal fund raiser. Forcade, in making plans and directing Zippie activities, has stated he does not plan to use confrontation, violence, or even civil disobedience during the RNC. He looks upon these activities as antics which are staged in order to derive publicity. He even refers to it as "show-biz" or frequently as the "Miami Media Grab."

[ ] and [ ] were both leaders and organizers in the YIP movement from Madison, Wisconsin, and they are dedicated to taking over the YIP from Jerry Rubin, YIP leader. They are politically oriented and want to solidify the movement back into one YIP organization with themselves as leaders and they advocate joining civil disobedience actions of the Miami Conventions Coalition, which is dominated by the Communist Party and People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) forces. Forcade has the Collective, which is the top leadership, staffed with his people and it is felt for that reason, and because of his financial backing, which includes publicity through the Underground Press Syndicate, he will be able to dominate Beal and Small. The official publicized Zippie Scenario, which is to be handed out, has a very carefully worded ending to the effect that the participants should avoid confrontation because they do not have enough money to defend large numbers of people who may be arrested. Immediately after that, out of context and without explanation, it states "fight back."

The Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC) was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C., during May, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) and RNC, including the Florida People's Coalition (FPC) and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC).

The FPC is a state-wide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the DNC, Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The PCPJ is self-described as a coalition of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

The SDCC was formed to organize demonstrations at the RNC at San Diego, California. This organization was dissolved when the site of the RNC was changed from San Diego to Miami Beach, Florida.

ReMMairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated <sup>ser 29</sup> 9/8/72.

A review of referenced LHM notes that on 8/23/72, Thomas King Forcade was driving a rented "Zippie sound truck," which was stopped in Miami Beach, Florida, by representatives of the Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD). In addition to Forcade, three other individuals were in the front of the truck and eleven additional individuals were in the back. The vehicle in question, described as an "open-state body, one and one-half or two ton truck," was found to contain "in the back of the truck" one five-gallon can containing "some kind of inflammable liquid," one vegetable can containing "wax-like material with a wick coming out," and two smaller cans containing "a wax-like material with a match-type item sticking out."

Referenced LHM notes that in view of the number of people in the truck, the DCPSD representatives did not believe Forcade should be charged in any way regarding the incendiary devices and therefore, he was arrested and charged with traffic offenses. Your LHM also notes that Forcade was served with a felony warrant later in the day of 8/23/72, in connection with the theft of a $125 photograph of Lyndon B. Johnson from the Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Referenced LHM adds that due to the confusion caused by the arrests during the recent national political conventions, police records concerning the above arrest and service of the felony warrant were temporarily unavailable. Your cover airtel noted you were attempting to obtain such records, planned to contact Motorcycle Officer [redacted] of the DCPSD, who reportedly arrested Forcade concerning the traffic violations on 8/23/72, and planned to contact [redacted] or [redacted] of the Bomb Section, DCPSD Crime Laboratory, who reportedly had examined some of the items found in the truck at the time of Forcade's arrest.

In view of the foregoing, promptly initiate investigation of this matter looking towards Federal prosecution in connection with violations of Title 26, Section 5861, U. S. Code, and related statutes.

Apropos of this you should immediately determine:

- 1) Did Forcade rent the "Zippie sound truck" or have the vehicle under his exclusive control? If not, who did?
- 2) Who were the other individuals riding in the truck?
- 3) Were the incendiary devices in the back of the cab of the truck or in the flat bed portion of the vehicle?
- 4) Was a lab report prepared by the DCPSD regarding the incendiary devices and, if so, what examinations were conducted, what results were obtained and specifically were any pertinent fingerprints developed?
- 5) What were the components of the incendiary devices and how were they assembled?
- 6) Where is the evidence now?
- 7) Will DCPSD authorities interpose any objection to making the incendiary devices and any lab report prepared concerning same available for FBI Laboratory examination?

If the physical evidence and the results of the DCPSD's lab examination of same are made available, submit evidence by separate communication directed to the attention of The FBI Laboratory. Your communication should identify each item submitted and specifically request the laboratory examination desired for each item.

Promptly submit a report or LHM incorporating all information in your possession regarding Forcade's involvement in this matter together with results of DCPSD's laboratory examination. Upon receipt, your report or LHM will be furnished the Department of Justice for prosecutive consideration.

Youth International Party

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions; the Yippies, headed by a YIP collective; and the Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the underground press syndicate.

As of June 28, 1972, Thomas Forcade was living at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida, the residence and headquarters of the Zippie faction of the YIP. As of this date, [redacted] was considered a leader in the Zippie movement, lived at the same address and was considered the primary leader in the absence of Thomas Forcade.

As of June 29, 1972, Thomas Forcade was in effect "kicked out" of the Zippies because of his wanting to support Che Guevara. The reason behind this was because the Zippies were afraid that there could be a possible confrontation with the Cubans in Miami over the fact Forcade wanted to support Che. Due to the confusion over this matter, Patrick Small was actually leading the Zippies and they continue to live at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida.

and low on funds. They were making posters to use in a parade and smoke-in on July 9, 1972. The main trouble has been getting sufficient "grass" for the smoke-in and the emphasis is to be that hard drugs like heroin should not be used, but that grass is perfectly alright. Within the previous day or two, possibly on July 5 or 6, 1972, Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman did stop at the Zippie Headquarters, 3113 Mary Street. Tom Forcade has, in effect, been "kicked out" of the Zippies.

Thomas Forcade attended a meeting held on July 6, 1972, at the Crest Hotel, Miami Beach. The meeting itself was to agree on ground rules for the use of the Flamingo Park Camp Site. In regard to the camp site, the representatives agreed on the following points:

- 1) No hard drugs would be allowed at the camp site.
- 2) The "smoke-in" would not be held at the camp site area.
- 3) No activities would be permitted which would in any way jeopardize the camp site permit.
- 4) A "People's Convention" would be set up consisting of one member of each organization for the purpose of dealing with camp site matters only.
- 5) A security program was established with representatives from each group.

During the meeting, it came up that [redacted] of the Zippies had been referred to as a police provocateur. Forcade began to yell and scream, indicating that he did not work with any group unless everyone publicly apologized for calling [redacted] a police provocateur. There was a hassle and the meeting broke up before all points had been considered.

The Zippies conducted a march and smoke-in on the afternoon of July 9, 1972, and there were about 400 participants. The Zippies had been smoking pot at the Flamingo Park Camp Site and continued to do so. They marched from

As of July 10, 1972, it appeared there was a change in the leadership of the Zippies and Tom Forcade and [redacted] had lost the real leadership.

On the afternoon of July 14, 1972, the Zippies went to a reported birthday party held for Jerry Rubin and Tom Forcade was among the group. Jerry Rubin did not show up. This took place at the Albion Hotel. Immediately after, the Zippies yelled through a bullhorn and stated they were tired of Rubin living in a penthouse while they were living in tents. The Zippies are continually in a turmoil, distrust each other and have a paranoid about this. They seem to be "loose", wanting to go their separate ways. The Zippies have their headquarters and continue to live at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida, but the landlord is attempting to evict them. The Zippies have drawn up a scenario as follows:

Dishonor America Day featuring a "urine-in" with American flags. Apple pies are to be tossed at a blown-up picture of [redacted] who represents "Mom."

From sunrise to moonrise, they will have what is called "the second coming of Jesus Christ" under the slogan of "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition." The idea is to tie in the complicity of the right wing of the church with the right wing of the government.

Women's Day, using a Moon over Miami theme, featuring an anti-Pope march pointing out the fact the Pope is anti-woman by his position on abortion and birth control.

On July 14, 1972, Tom Forcade was being evicted by his landlord and this is the headquarters and residence of Forcade at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. (MM T-1 on 7/14/72)

Tom Forcade has been out of Miami and the Zippies moved out of the headquarters at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. They currently live and have their headquarters at 3039 Mary Street. The Zippies have approximately 15 actual members, although as of August 9, 1972, there were about 17 persons living at 3039 Mary Street. Of the 17, 15 could be considered members and two considered "drifters," as this house is open to young people who like to drift in and out. As of August 9, 1972, Thomas Forcade was not in Miami and was believed to be in New York.

(MM T-1 on 8/9-10/72)

On the night of August 17, 1972, a meeting of the various groups was held at the Flamingo Park Camp Site relative to camp rules. Tom Forcade and [redacted] were present and represented the Zippies.

As of August 18, 1972, there were approximately 25 Zippies in Miami Beach, Florida, most of whom lived and worked out of the residence--headquarters, 3039 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. There continues to be a power struggle as far as Thomas Forcade is concerned.

As of August 21, 1972, the Zippies appeared to be going along with Tom Forcade as the ZIP leader.

(MM T-1 on 8/21/72)

Thomas Forcade was "busted" by the police during activity at Miami Beach, Florida, on August 23, 1972. He had participated in numerous demonstrations during both Conventions. He is believed to be out on bond, and since released, he indicated he intended to go underground somewhere in the Washington area. He has used the names of Garry Goodson and George McTesky, although it is not known at this time whether or not he would again use these names.

(MM T-1 on 8/29/72)

[redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, Police Department, advised that on August 23, 1972, Tom Forcade was arrested in a Zippie truck, at which time he had gasoline and other items suitable for assembling fire bombs in the truck.

b7C

Records of the Miami Beach Police Department, as checked on September 6, 1972, reflect no actual arrests; however, there was a field interrogation card, dated June 14, 1972, which had the following:

Thomas King Forcade, white male, date of birth September 11, 1945--writer--underground press--staying at Albion Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida.

There were also three "stop" cards as follows:

May 22, 1972, Thomas King Forcade--a representative of YIP, staying at Albion Hotel.

June 5, 1972, Thomas King Forcade--author of revolutionary press, with a party as an organizer.

June 14, 1972, Thomas King Forcade--lived at Albion Hotel.

Records of the following agencies, as checked on September 6, 1972, were negative as to Thomas King Forcade:

Miami, Florida, Police Department

Dade County Public Safety Department

Miami Municipal Court

Credit Bureau of Greater Miami

[redacted] Dade County Public Safety Department, advised that due to the great number of arrests during the demonstrations and trouble at Miami Beach during the Conventions, the records were scattered. He advised that if there were no records in the central filing system, it was probably because there had been insufficient time to make the appropriate index cards. He advised it would probably be three or four weeks before the records were straightened out. b6 b7C

[redacted] Tactical Investigative Section, Dade County Public Safety Department, on September 8, 1972, advised that he specifically recalled Thomas King Forcade being arrested on August 23, 1972. He advised that he, [redacted] was in the area of the Convention Hall; specifically in the area of the Lincoln Mall and Meridian Avenue, and that demonstrations were going on. He advised it was about between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. that a Zippie sound truck--a rental and further described as an open-state body, one and one-half or two ton truck--drove up. He said the driver was Tom Forcade and that there 11 demonstrators in the back of the truck and 3 in front. He advised that the truck was stopped and that Tom Forcade was arrested. He stated that in the back of the truck, the following items were found:

One big can, described as an "Allstate Oil" can, but which did not contain oil and had some kind of inflammable liquid. This was a five-gallon can;

Three small incendiary devices; one a vegetable can with a wax-like material in it with a wick coming out; the other two were smaller cans with a wax-like material with a match-type item sticking out.

[redacted] advised that due to the fact that there were so many people in the truck, it was not believed that Tom Forcade should be charged in any way as to the incendiary devices, and subsequently, Forcade was actually arrested and charged with improper change of lane, impeding traffic and no valid driver's license. He advised that the arresting officer was [redacted] of the Central District, Motorcycle Division, Dade County Public Safety Department. [redacted] said further that two individuals, [redacted] and [redacted] of the Crime Laboratory, Bomb Section, Dade County Public Safety Department, examined the incendiary devices.

[redacted]*

[redacted] advised that he did not write up a detailed report on this matter and he did not know whether or not any mention of the incendiary devices was made by Officer [redacted] who arrested Forcade on the traffic charges.

[redacted] Organized Crime Bureau, Dade County Public Safety Department, on September 8, 1972, advised that he does recall Tom Forcade being arrested on August 23, 1972, in connection with the demonstrations at Miami Beach, Florida. He stated that [redacted] was the person who knew about this. [redacted] advised that later during the night of August 23, 1972, he had served a felony warrant at the Dade County Jail on Thomas Forcade. He said this felony warrant pertained to the theft of a picture of Lyndon Johnson, which picture had been stolen from the Convention Hall, about a week before the Democratic Convention. [redacted] advised that as close as he could recall, the picture, which was actually a blown-up photograph, was valued at $125. He advised he had no additional information about this particular charge at this time.

[redacted] stated that it would be impossible at this time to attempt to locate the actual record pertaining to either the felony warrant or the traffic arrest on ReTPlet to Bureau 8/30/72.

On 10/4/72, [redacted] who lives at [redacted] St. Petersburg, and who works for the [redacted] St. Petersburg, Fla. informed that he first met TOM FORCADE when he and FORCADE were mutually involved in attempting to promote a rock festival in Orlando, Fla. about two years ago. They were unsuccessful. Their relationship, however, at that time lasted about 10 days.

[redacted] acknowledged that he was responsible for FORCADE's appearance in St. Petersburg, Fla. in February 1972. [redacted] was instrumental in promoting a voter registration rally in St. Petersburg with his musical group "Evil Rock". They entertained at the voter registration rally. FORCADE stayed at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in St. Petersburg. FORCADE is primarily engaged in managing rock groups and writing material for the Underground Press Service (UPS) in New York City.

FORCADE, according to [redacted] was again in St. Petersburg in June, 1972, at which time he held a press conference in a local park. His first appearance in St. Petersburg had no political overtone whatever. His trip in June, 1972, was designed to precipitate interest in the two national conventions in Miami. He was not successful in promoting any interest whatsoever in St. Petersburg. [redacted] didn't even go to Miami for the conventions.

FORCADE has acknowledged to [redacted] that he is a Zippie. The Zippies had little success in organizing any activity in Miami during the major national conventions. Primarily this was a result of bickering between the members of the organization.

[ ] said that while FORCADE makes statements designed to have a "shock" effect on the establishment, primarily about matters involving sex and politics, etc., that he, FORCADE, is not violent. He may however, talk about violence and the desirability of it, but [ ] does not envision FORCADE becoming involved in violent activities. He said that FORCADE is a "put on" artist and is a practical joker and humorist of the first magnitude. For example, FORCADE was involved in a group of individuals at one of the Miami conventions where members of the group tossed a Governor WALLACE fascimili doll over one of the fences of the convention center. Attached to the doll was a note demanding the freedom of ARTHUR BREMER, the individual who attempted to assassinate WALLACE.

b7C

[ ] said that this activity on the part of FORCADE was illustrative of FORCADE's sense of humor, as FORCADE certainly didn't advocate BREMER's freedom. He pointed out that when FORCADE was in St. Petersburg, in early 1972, that he indicated he was driving a Rolls Royce vehicle with a Wales tag on it. He said this was another indication of FORCADE's sense of humor, as he did not have a vehicle, especially one so expensive.

He described FORCADE as a good showman and an opportunist and feels that FORCADE will exploit his notoriety by writing articles and obtaining money for it. He said one of the main interests of FORCADE at the present time is "rock liberation". [ ] described this movement as one in which musicians are attempting to reduce the price of tickets to rock festivals, realizing that the entertainers are exploiting the youth of the country by charging outrageous prices to get into these festivals.

[ ] said that he has not seen FORCADE since June, 1972, and doubts that he will ever see him again. He said that FORCADE would not have any reason whatsoever to return to St. Petersburg, as he has no one there with whom he has a close relationship. In conclusion, [ ] said that if he wanted to correspond or communicate with FORCADE, he would do so by directing a letter to FORCADE at the UPS in New York City or telephone UPS and ask for FORCADE.

Tampa is conducting no further inquiry in this matter.

NATIONAL FIREARMS ACT

Re Bureau airtel to Miami dated 9/19/72, captioned as above.

The following background regarding this matter is set out for the information of the FBI Laboratory.

THOMAS KING FORCADE, FBI Number 125 984 H, was considered the leader of the Zippie faction of the Youth International Party in Miami and was active in both marches and demonstrations at both the Democratic and Republican Conventions.

[redacted] Tactical Investigations Section, Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), on 10/4/72, advised that he recalled THOMAS KING FORCADE being arrested on 8/23/72. He advised that late in the afternoon a Zippie sound truck, a rental described as an open stake body truck with 11 demonstrators in the back and three persons in the front, was stopped at the area of Meridian Avenue and Lincoln Road, Miami Beach, Florida, and FORCADE was arrested. He stated that he observed the items taken from the truck and said further FORCADE was actually charged with traffic offenses rather than as to the incendiary devices due to the fact there were so many people in the truck. [redacted] said he had not made any written report on this matter and that the arresting officer was motorcycle officer [redacted]

On 10/5/72, Officer [redacted] advised he had stopped a stake type truck which was proceeding on the wrong side of the street in the area of Meridian Avenue and Lincoln Road, Miami Beach, and that he had cited the driver, THOMAS KING FORCADE on three traffic offenses. These were improper change of lane, impeding traffic, and no driver's license. Officer [ ] said that he noticed three small containers on the floor of the cab of the truck between the feet of a female passenger and that these items were obtained and he further noticed a five gallon can described as Allstate Motor Oil just behind the cab of the driver's side in the rear of the truck sitting on the floor. He said there was some type of speakers in the rear of the stake truck and there were about 11 persons in the back of the truck and three people had been in the front. He advised these items had subsequently been turned over to [ ] Crime Laboratory, Bomb Section, DCPSP, and that he, [ ] as arresting officer, was the man responsible for turning these items over to [ ]

b7C

In connection with his examination, [ ] advised that he had not even considered examining the items for fingerprints in view of the fact that after the truck was stopped at the time of the arrest, several officers had handled the items and several other persons had handled the items. In addition, numerous other persons had handled these items at the DCPSP. He said he did not know the identities of these persons and consequently, he did not make any fingerprint examination as such would be fruitless.

In view of the above, no fingerprint examination of the items is being requested.

Enclosed for the FBI Laboratory examination are the following items:

1. Four fluid ounces from 51- Fluid from can a five gallon can "Allstate-Motor Oil" containing a liquid substance
62 can containing wax and black wick
2. A small can with wax like substance and a type of black wick. Can has a paper wrapper "Sunshine Green Beans with Potatoes" and measures about 4½ inches tall
3. 57 can containing wax substance and 13 matches
A small can with a wax like substance with 13 matches inserted in the substance with head of matches sticking out. Can measures about 4½ inches tall.

4. Small can with wax like substance and five matches inserted in substance, measuring about three inches tall

45 - Copy of Miami Crime Laboratory report.

Also enclosed for the FBI Laboratory and the Bureau is a copy of the Laboratory Report reflecting the results of examination as conducted by [redacted] Criminist, Crime Laboratory, Bomb Section, DCPSD, Miami, Florida.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to examine the items as follows:

Item 1: (the five gallon can marked Allstate-Motor Oil) to determine contents and if inflammable, or incendiary.

b6
b7C

Item 2: (the can containing wax like substance with a wick) for contents and if this can be of an incendiary nature.

Item 3: (a can with wax like substance with 13 matches) to determine contents and if this item is of an incendiary nature

Item 4: (can with a wax like substance with five matches) to determine contents and to ascertain if this item is of an incendiary nature.

Upon completion of the examination, it is requested that all items be returned to Miami with results of examination.

It is requested that this matter be given expeditious attention in view of the fact that the Bureau has indicated all information pertaining to this matter will be furnished the Department of Justice for prosecutive consideration.

Above described items being shipped in two separate boxes via Railroad Express per instructions of SA [redacted] FBI Laboratory.

| Q4 | Can containing a waxlike substance and five matches     |

Result of examination:

The Q1 fluid was identified as gasoline.

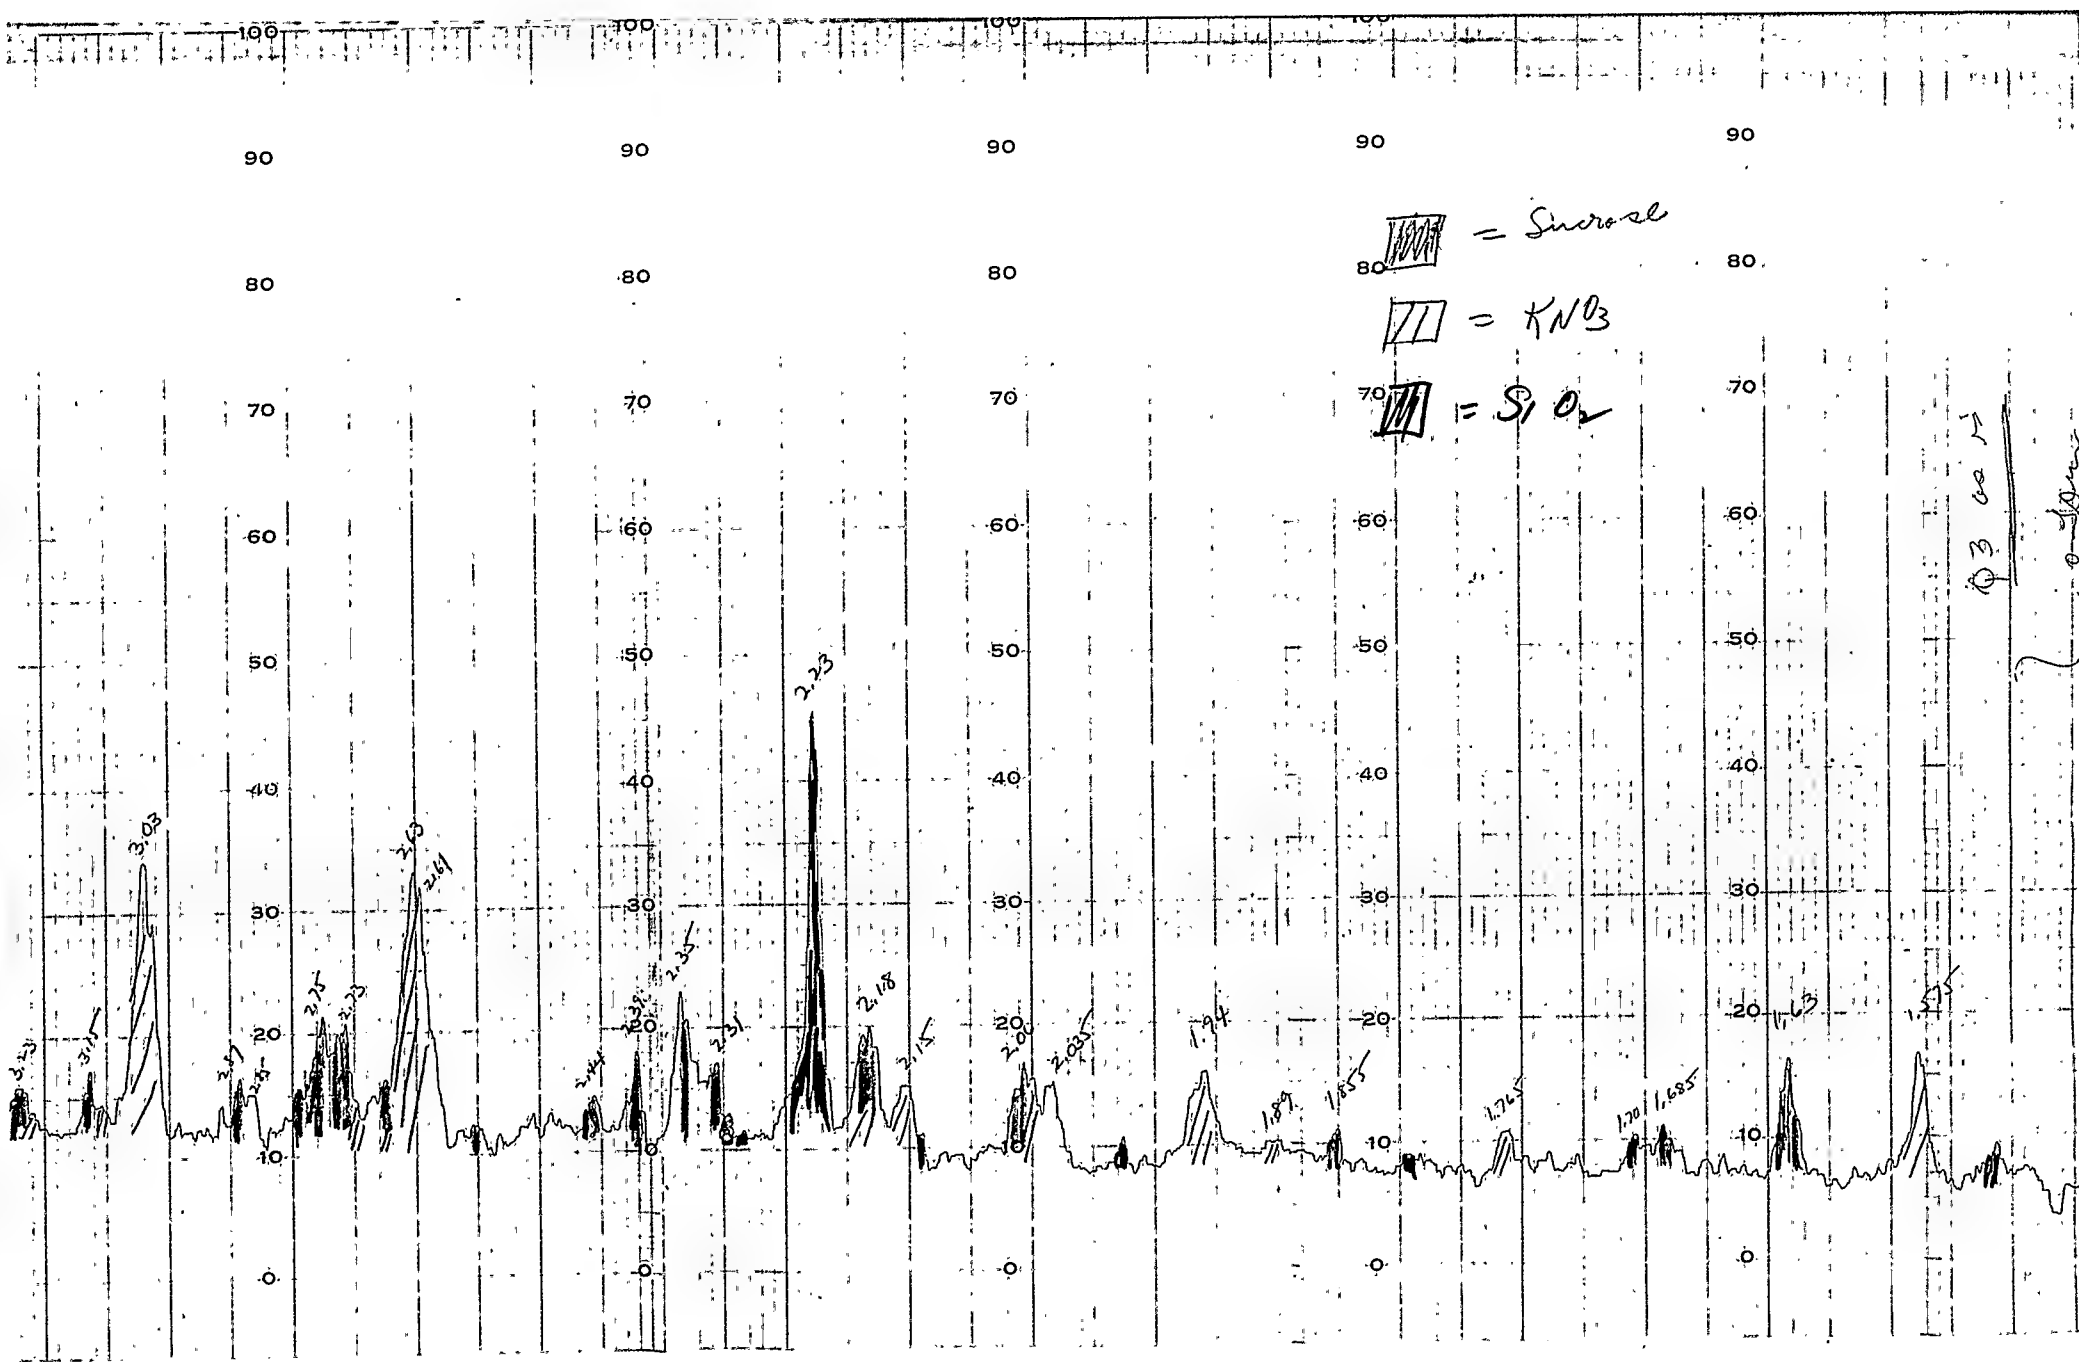

The contents of the Q2 can were found to be wax containing a charred stick wrapped in paper as a wick. No incendiary chemicals were found mixed with the wax.

The waxlike substance present in specimens Q3 and Q4 is a mixture of potassium nitrate and sugar. Materials such as these are combustible and easily ignited with a violent spontaneous reaction.

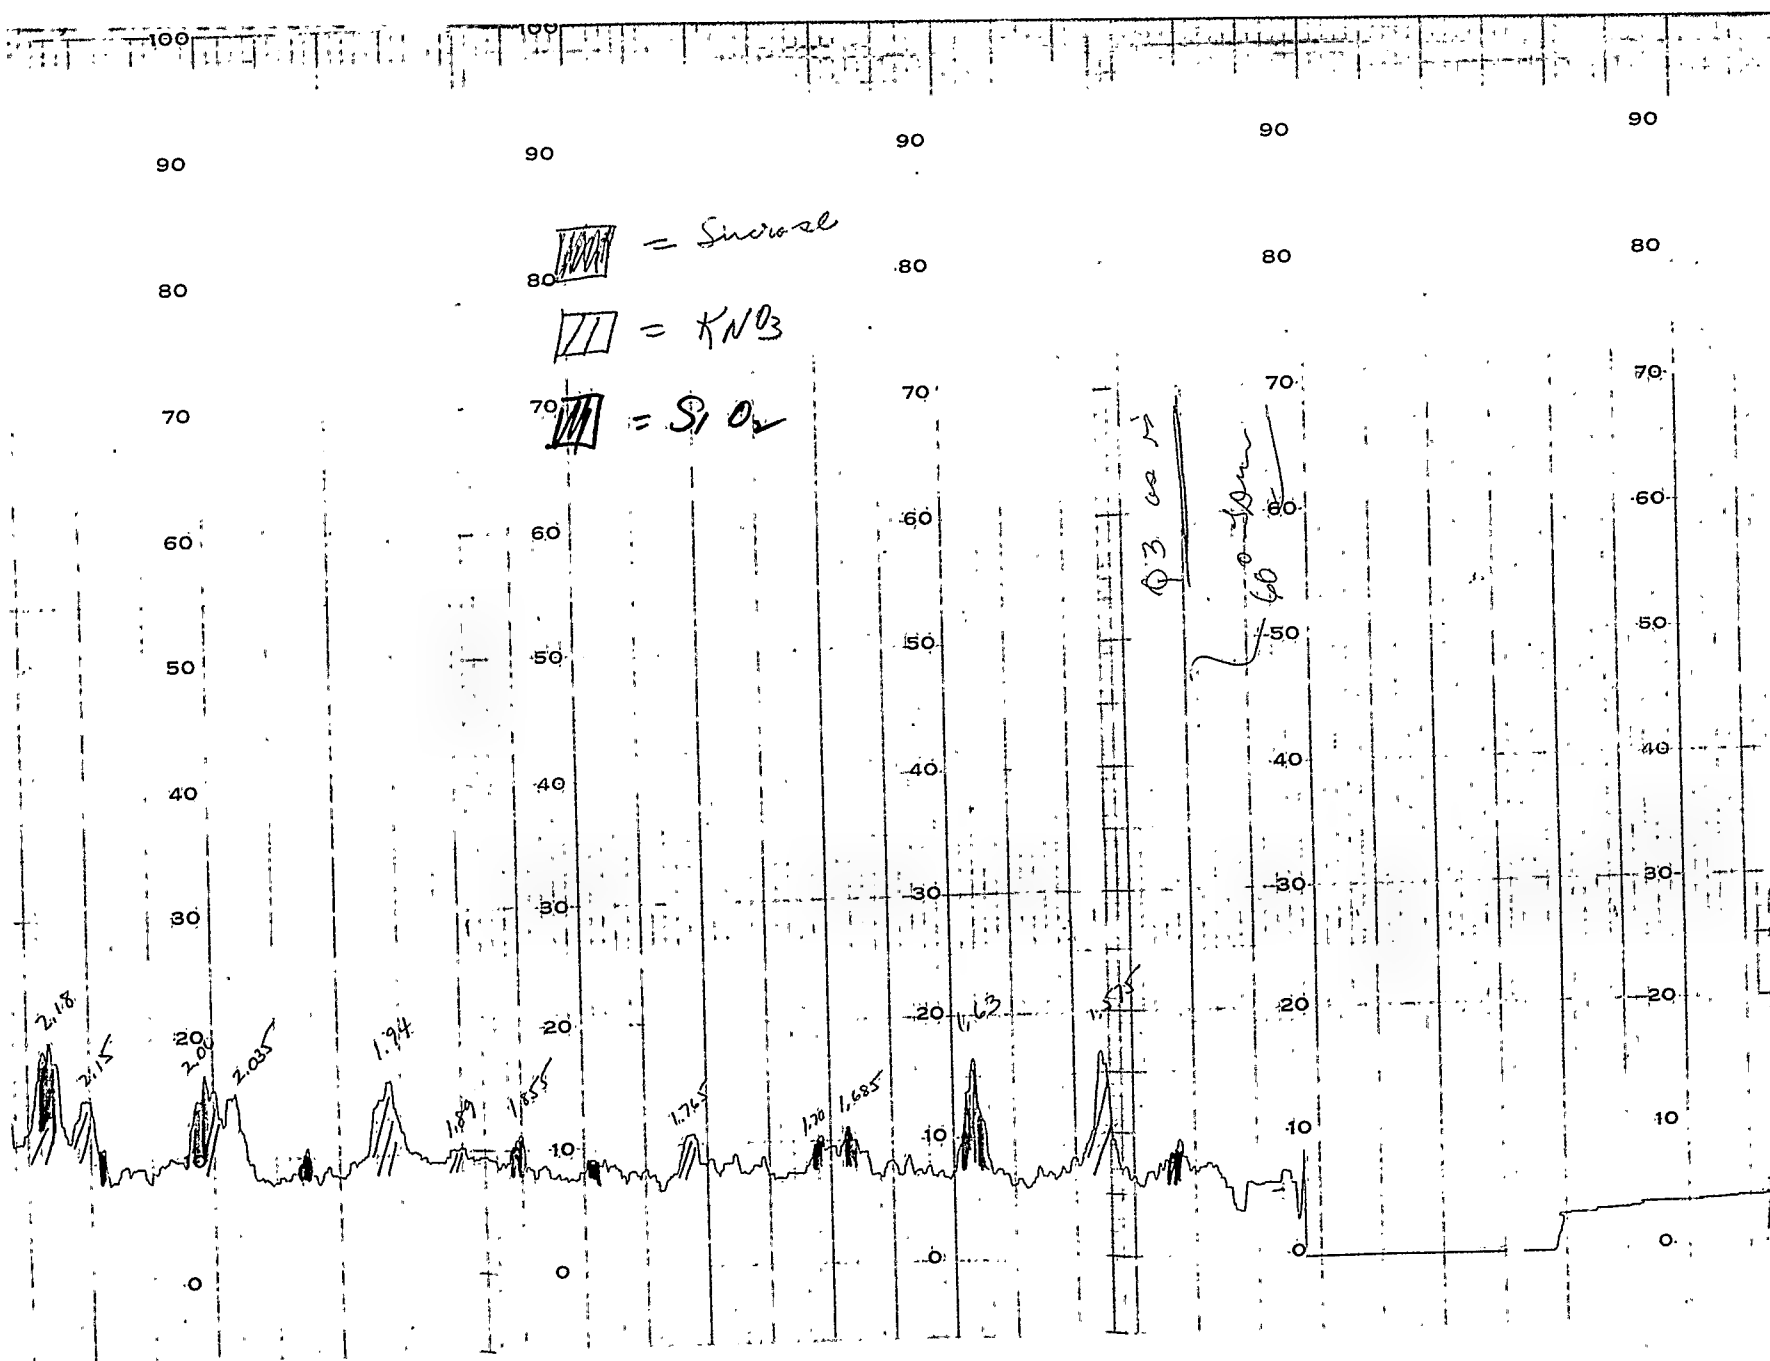

On October 25, 1972, a Laboratory explosives specialist tested a sample of the mixture from specimen Q3 and a sample of the mixture from specimen Q4. Both mixtures were ignited with a match and burned. The mixture from specimen Q4 burned more intensely than did the mixture from specimen Q3.

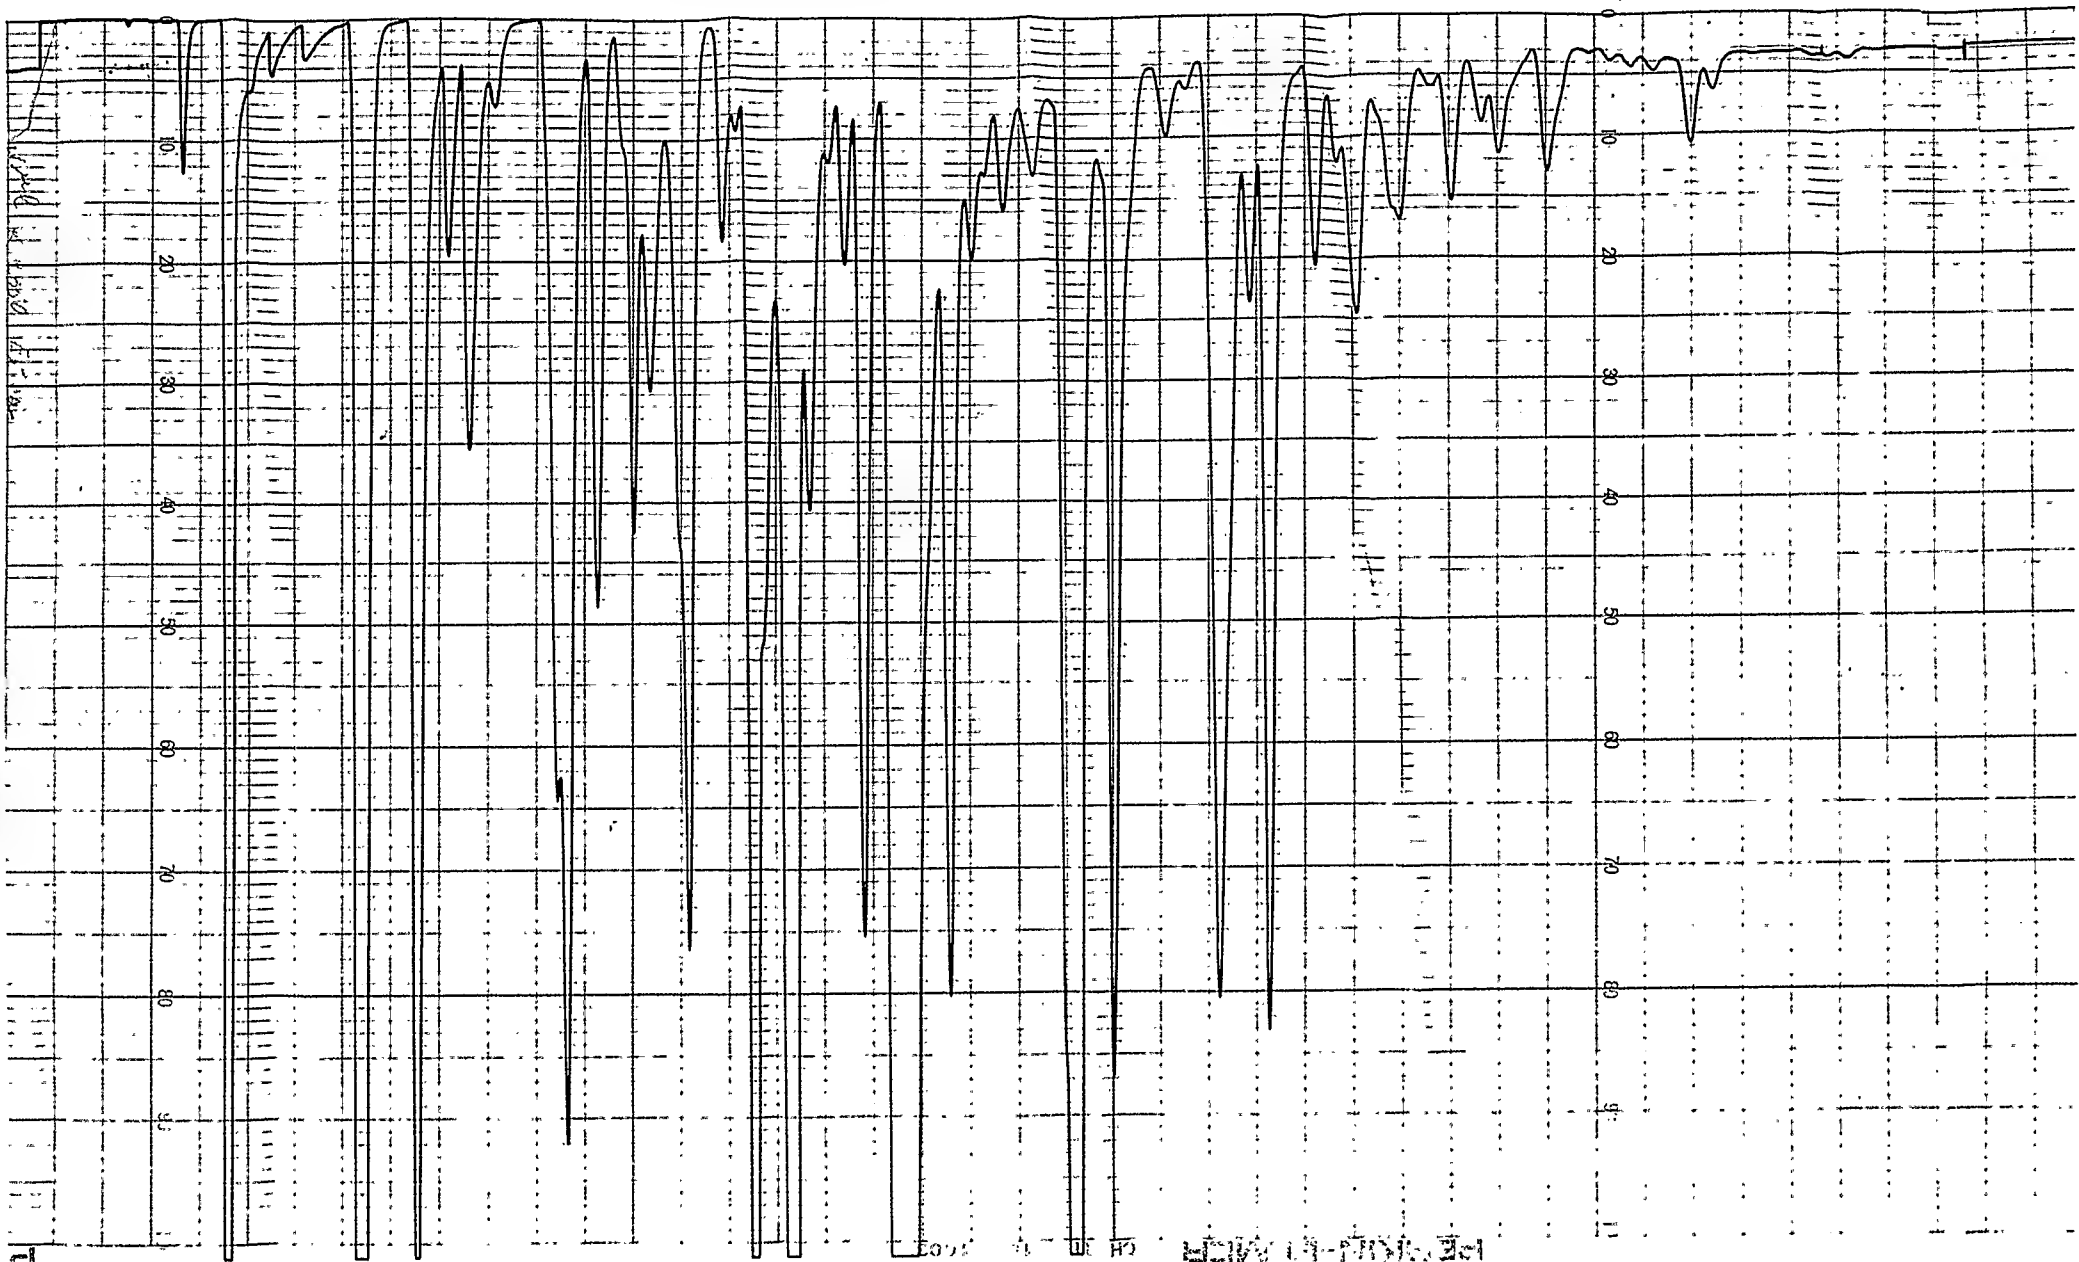

Based on the above tests, the Q3 and Q4 devices could be used as incendiary devices to ignite combustible materials in contact with the incendiary mixtures.

NOTE:

Subject, a long-time violent New Left underground press operative, endorsed use of violence by "Yippies" at national political conventions and early in 1972 reportedly threatened the life of the President. Included in ADEX, Forcade is alleged to be leader of the "Zippies," a faction of the Yippies. Above concerns Forcade's arrest on 8/23/72 in Miami Beach, Florida, by officers of Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD) at which time he was driving a rented "Zippie sound truck." Arresting officers discovered what appeared to be three incendiary devices aboard truck, but due to the large number of individuals involved (three others in cab of truck and 11 others on flat bed portion of same), DCPSD officers did not believe Forcade should be charged regarding the suspected incendiary devices and therefore, he was charged with traffic offenses. u

We are currently conducting investigation of above matter under National Firearms Act looking toward obtaining prosecutive opinion from Department. Above to clarify situation concerning possible participation of Bureau informant in this matter. (X)

ReTPairtel dated 11/24/72, enclosing FD-302, and Tampa teletype dated 11/28/72.

Referenced correspondence concerns information furnished by [REDACTED] regarding incendiary devices discovered on 8/23/72 by officers of the Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD) in the cab of a truck being driven by subject in Miami Beach, Florida.
In this connection, informant [REDACTED] Tom Forcade and his associates [REDACTED] were not in possession of the incendiary devices in question, and that, in informant's opinion, someone had introduced these devices as a plant, and, therefore, they do not constitute bona fide evidence.
Referenced FD-302 also concludes with the paragraph "There had been no plans made to use the gasoline as an incendiary device and there were no plans for confrontation or violence on the occasion of the above incident. Tom Forcade had not been known to demonstrate any propensity for violence."

Informant's adamant comments regarding the planting of the devices could raise questions concerning his credibility, and his statement regarding Forcade's lack of a propensity for violence at best suggests his association with the latter has been limited.

Re: Thomas King Forcade

Apropos of the foregoing, and inasmuch as the lessee of the truck in question would ordinarily be interviewed during investigation of possible National Firearms Act violations on Forcade's part, promptly resubmit referenced FD-302 attributing the information to informant by name. [REDACTED] b7D of informant should also be submitted in the same manner. Insure that any comment made by informant not based on his own personal knowledge or observation is so indicated.

In connection with possible prosecution of Forcade, informant should be reinterviewed, advised of the gravity of this situation and placed on notice that it is possible this matter will be brought before a Federal Grand Jury where testimony, including informant's, will be accepted subject to the penalty of perjury.

This interview should encompass complete details regarding the rental of the truck, including why it was rented and who furnished the rental money. Regarding the police detention of the truck on 8/23/72, [REDACTED] b7D why Forcade was driving. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Again insure that informant's opinions are so designated and assure interviewing Agents fully pursue any opinions offered by informant concerning this matter to establish his exact basis for same.

Submit results of interview, again setting forth informant's identity, in FD-302 via cover airtel containing recommendations for additional action warranted in this matter.

NOTE:

Subject is violent New Leftist and leader of the "Zippies," a faction of the Yippies, who, early in 1972, reportedly threatened the life of the President. Above concerns Forcade's arrest on 8/23/72 in Miami Beach, Florida, by officers of the DCPSD, at which time he was driving a rented "Zippie sound truck." Three small incendiary devices; one a vegetable can with a wax-like material in it with a wick coming out; the other two were smaller cans with a wax-like material with a match-type item sticking out. ## Tom Forcade

Tom Forcade dealt hard drugs and strung out a local organizer for the VVAW. This Vietnam Veteran under heavy drug influence talked with the police five hours conjuring up false tales about the veterans.

This man uses his ample money and drugs to control people. His actions have been disruptive and suspicious. It is wise to avoid him.

Re: Thomas King Forcade

Recipients are reminded that Bureau airtel to Miami and New York dated 9/28/72, noted that results of the National Firearms Act investigation of Forcade's activities on 8/23/72 in Miami Beach, Florida, would be furnished to the Department for prosecutive consideration. Accordingly, letterhead memoranda previously submitted concerning this matter have been furnished to the Department, as will be the results of Tampa interview of [redacted]

Inasmuch as the decision regarding prosecution of Forcade concerning possible violation of the National Firearms Act lies with the Department of Justice, it is recipients' responsibility to insure the Department is in possession of complete facts in this matter. In line with the foregoing and in keeping with instructions contained in Bureau airtel dated 9/28/72, Miami continue to aggressively pursue investigation of possible violations of National Firearms Act provisions on subject's part.

NOTE:

Subject is violent New Leftist and leader of the "Zippies," a faction of the Yippies, who, early in 1972, reportedly threatened the life of the President. Above concerns Forcade's arrest on 8/23/72, in Miami Beach, Florida, by officers of the Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), at which time he was driving a rented "Zippie sound truck." Arresting officers discovered what appeared to be three incendiary devices aboard the truck, but due to the large number of individuals involved (three others in cab of truck and eleven others on the flat bed portion), DCPSD officers did not believe Forcade should be charged regarding the suspected incendiary devices and, therefore, he was charged with traffic offenses. Department requested Bureau investigation in this matter.

FBI Laboratory examination, conducted in connection with National Firearms Act investigation, disclosed two of the above devices contained potassium nitrate and sugar which are "combustible and easily ignited with a violent spontaneous reaction."

Instructions to field to aggressively pursue National Firearms Act investigation of Forcade's activities in Miami Beach, Florida, on 8/23/72, being reiterated.

A confidential source advised as follows:

On or about Wednesday August 23, 1972, THOMAS KING FORCADE was arrested by Miami Beach, Florida Police on a traffic violation for operating a vehicle without a license. The arrest took place on Meridian Avenue near the Republican National Convention Hall in Miami Beach, Florida.

FORCADE was driving a 20 foot open flat-bed Ford truck which had been rented by [redacted] from the Ryder Truck Rental in Miami, Florida. The truck contained a 6,000 watt portable electric generator which had also been rented by [redacted] from the Hertz Equipment Rentals located near the above truck rental agency in Miami. The generator was being used to supply electric power for amplifying equipment being utilized on the truck by a rock and roll music group.

b7C

The truck was occupied by FORCADE and more than 20 other individuals which included a small rock and roll music group known as "The Gooks," and about 20 members of the Zippies who were carrying Zippie flags mounted on about 2 foot sticks. The three members of the rock and roll group were not affiliated with the Zippies, but were just musicians.

The truck was on Meridian Avenue approaching the convention hall area and it was bound for the Washington Street staging area for a demonstration which was forming in connection with the convention when it encountered numerous police in that area. The police ordered the truck to stop. The police demanded the individuals carrying the Zippie flags to turn them over to the police. One person on the truck momentarily refused to comply, but it was immediately announced over the truck's amplifying equipment that the group should turn the flags over to the police as they only wanted the sticks. The group complied and turned the sticks over to the police averting a confrontation. Approximately 30 or more of the police were involved in this event, but it was estimated that hundreds of police were in the immediate area. After surrendering the sticks to the police, a search was made of the truck by the police. One of the police officers took the five gallon gasoline can which was utilized for fuel for the portable generator and poured it out onto the street. The gasoline was poured onto two rolls of toilet paper, the origin of which was unknown as they were not known to have been on the truck. One of the policemen then picked up the gasoline soaked toilet paper making the comment "Look what we've got here, firebombs." Meanwhile, some of the other police officers were searching the cab of the truck and TOM FORCADE. There were no other instruments found which could be considered weapons, explosives, slingshots, fireworks, or other such paraphernalia.

The police were about to release the group when one of the policemen remarked "Aw, wait a minute, look what we've got here, no license." They then arrested TOM FORCADE and another individual in the group for operating the vehicle without a license. The other individual, [REDACTED] had nothing to do with the Zippies, but was involved as a stage set-up man for the rock and roll group. [REDACTED] did in fact have a license with him which he subsequently produced to the judge and the charge against him was dismissed. b6 b7C FLA

The police asked who the truck belonged to and [REDACTED] produced the rental papers for the truck and his identification whereupon the police then released the group with the exception of FORCADE and [REDACTED] who were taken to the police station on the charge of operation a vehicle without a license.

There had been no plans made to use the gasoline as an incendiary device and there were no plans for confrontation or violence on the occasion of the above incident. TOM FORCADE had not been known to demonstrate any propensity for violence.

(ZODIAC) -- "Zippie" leader Tom Forcade strongly denied this week that he was a paid provocateur for the Republican party during last August's GOP convention in Miami Beach.

Forcade is a writer for Underground Press Service and was the chief spokesman in Miami Beach for the "Zippies" -- a more militant faction of the "Yippies."

Chicago Daily News columnist Mike Royko recently reported that there was substantial "circumstantial evidence" that Forcade had actually been working for the Committee to Re-elect the President. According to Royko, many of the members of the anti-war movement had become convinced that Forcade was using the Zippies to cause a major violent confrontation between demonstrators and police. Royko suggested that Forcade's tactics were aimed at deliberately inciting violent incidents that would swing public sentiment toward the Republican party.

Royko said that many of the other Youth International party factions had showed evidence to him that indicated that Forcade used drugs and money, supplied to him through Republican operatives, to control the "Zippies."

However, Forcade stated this week that the charge was "absurd." He insisted that Royko's "evidence" was supplied by Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, who, he said, were "bitter" because Forcade is successful in the Yippie movement while Hoffman and Rubin are losing their positions as leaders in the party.

Forcade insists that he is still active in the Youth International party -- and that he will be participating in future Yippie demonstrations when he completes work on a rock opera album he is involved in.

positive information by FD-302.

Miami should be aware that an important facet of this case, to insure successful subsequent prosecution of Forcade, is the identification of all individuals in the cab of the truck with Forcade, at the time of his arrest, by witnesses other than confidential informants. It should be noted that one [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] Casselberry, Florida, was alleged to have been in the cab of the truck with Forcade and Ornsteen. Miami recontact police officers who were at the scene of the arrest and thoroughly review police reports and records to establish information that [redacted] was with Forcade at the time of the arrest. If [redacted] actual presence can be established through other than confidential informants, Miami should promptly set forth leads to have him interviewed concerning his knowledge of Forcade's activities on 8/23/72, and especially any information he has concerning the contents of the truck when stopped by police officers.

For the information of all recipients, the Department does not at this time contemplate calling [redacted] b6 b7C as a Government witness; however, the Department pointed out that [redacted] b7D

Miami, in addition to expeditiously handling the above investigation, should promptly prepare a comprehensive report under the Forcade caption concerning all details of his arrest on 8/23/72, especially incorporate therein all photographs taken by the local police at the arrest scene. This report should be promptly submitted under airtel cover, attention Domestic Intelligence Division.

4. Small can with wax like substance and five matches inserted in substance, measuring about three inches tall.

An examination by the FBI Laboratory determined that Item #1 was gasoline, Item #2 was wax containing a charred stick wrapped in paper as a wick - no incendiary chemicals in this wax and Items 3 and 4 could be used as incendiary device to ignite combustible materials.

Subsequent investigation as to the truck determined that it had actually been rented by one [redacted] of Orlando, Fla. [redacted] when interviewed on 11/22/72 in effect indicated that the truck was stopped by the police when it had been bound for the Convention Hall. At this time one of the policemen took the five gallon gasoline can which was utilized for fuel for the portable generator and poured it out onto the street. At this time the gasoline was poured onto two rolls of toilet paper, the origin of which was unknown, as they were not known to have been on the truck. One of the policemen then picked up the gasoline soaked toilet paper making the comment "look what we've got here - firebombs". On this interview of 11/22/72, [redacted] indicated there had been no plans to use the gasoline as an incendiary device.

The Tampa Division has no information of evidence in its possession on which to base a violation of the National Fire Arms Act was committed by the subject on August 23, 1972, at Miami Beach, Florida.

The Tampa Division is not in possession of information on which to make a judgement as to the credibility or reliability of the sources in the Miami Division who claimed to have found the incendiary devices in the cab of the truck or whether or not some other source could have introduced the devices for the sources to find in the truck cab while it was stopped and surrounded by numerous individuals.

Under these above circumstances and because Tampa is in possession of information which indicates the subject did not commit a violation of the Federal Fire Arms Act in Miami Beach, Florida on 8/23/72, Tampa concurs with the comments of the office of origin in this matter in its referenced airtel dated 11/29/72, and recommends that additional action does not appear warranted in this matter.

In addition to individuals who appeared in photographs at the arrest scene, the following were on the truck whom [ ] can identify:

[ ] address unknown, from New York City. FLH

[ ] for The Gooks, from

[ ] recalled CINDY ORNSTEIN had a large bag-type purse in the cab of the truck, but he recalled nothing else in the truck cab. It is his opinion that ORNSTEIN's bag could not have possibly concealed the two gallon type oil can and the other cans alleged to be incendiary devices, nor were these devices in the cab of the truck when he was in it shortly before it departed from the park.
